

The Diplomatic Club

Medical Directory
2008

Dear Members,

I am pleased to present the annual edition of the Diplomatic Club Medical Directory as a service to the diplomatic corp.

The aim of the bulletin is to assist diplomats and their families and staff who often come to Israel without knowledge of Hebrew, and perhaps without foreign health insurance that would cover them adequately in the event of emergencies or health problem.

We are greatly indebted to the local doctors and medical centers that have agreed to be listed in the Diplomatic Club Medical Bulletin, and for their agreement to accept the international health insurance scheme outlined.

We also thank the Ministry of Health of Israel for appreciating the complex problem of health insurance for diplomatic staff, and for supporting the Medical Bulletin.

We too understand the difficulties of living in a foreign country and hope that this service will prove helpful to diplomatic staff and their families.

Sincerely Yours
Julia Verdel
General Manager

THEY SAY Life Mel<sup>TM</sup>

THE BEEHIVE PRODUCT FROM "ZUF GLOBUS LABORATORIES" HELPS CANCER PATIENTS

Life Mel improves the condition of the blood. It raises the white cell count and the red cell count, raises hemoglobin levels and increases the number of thrombocytes in the blood.

...Dr. Geoffery Lipton, a specialist in leukemia at Toronto University, was also skeptical. "Dr Gefen's white blood cell count just happened to improve exactly when he started taking Life Mel. But was that a lucky coincidence or was the honey responsible? That's the question."
 Dr. Gefen has no other explanation. He is absolutely convinced that it was the Life Mel that brought about the improvement in his condition.
 "By the end of March, I was at death's door", he tells us.
 "Whether it was just good luck, one of those rare spontaneous remissions, a delayed reaction to an experimental drug or the Life Mel - what happened to me is nothing less than a miracle."

DIPLOMACY WITH EASE

The role of the diplomat abroad is not one to be taken lightly. It requires a high level of education, knowledge and self-assurance.

In Israel that role is all the more important due to the security and political situation.

For the diplomat and his or her family, the time spent here can put a real strain on every aspect of life. The foreign community is fortunate to have the skills and support of a number of people to carry them through a large part of the process but wouldn't it be nice if you and your family had something that could take care of the mental and emotional processes too, leaving you free to enjoy life?

- Enjoy the freedom of travel without the worry of fatigue and jetlag
- Eliminate the stress involved in dealing with day to day business; adjusting to new schools and acquaintances
- Have the levels of concentration necessary for studying a new language; attending classes in school which are unfamiliar and daunting to even the hardest of children
- The ability to relax at the end of the busy work or school day
- Increased stamina to enjoy the growing number of sports available
- Cope with the harsh, hot and humid Mediterranean summer
- Know that you will remain cool, calm and beautifully presented in all situations as hair, nails and skin remain in peak condition
- Prevent the onset of simple colds and coughs and recover speedily from more debilitating illnesses as well as having the ability to recover rapidly in the event of having to undergo major surgery.

Enjoy diplomatic immunity with our unique formulations
